

First Class are enjoying measuring!

When it came to Measures the girls found that they could measure length with lots of different things like lollipop sticks and even their maths books. They made some great estimations before they measured things like doors, classroom width and length.

The girls using concrete objects (lollipop sticks) to investigate tens and units. They made bundles of tens and counted the extra units.