The Lion and the Mouse

One day, a proud lion was asleep in the wood, his head resting on his paws. A timid mouse came along. The mouse didn't see the lion and ran across the lion's nose.

The lion woke up from his nap. He was cross with the mouse. "You woke me up!" he roared and laid his paw on the mouse, ready to gobble her up.

The mouse was scared. "Please let me go!" begged the mouse. "If you let me go, I will repay you one day!"

"You are funny!" said the lion. "How could a mouse help a lion?"

The lion laughed at the idea that a mouse could ever help him. But he was generous and let the mouse go.

Some days later, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. Unable to get out, the lion roared in anger. The mouse remembered the lion's voice and ran quickly to the net.

The mouse saw the lion struggling in the net and had an idea. She gnawed on the net until it broke and the lion was able to escape. The lion was free.

"Even a mouse can help a lion!" declared the tiny mouse.

From that day on, the mouse and the lion became friends forever.

A kindness is never wasted.

The Lion and the Mouse Questions

1. Why did the mouse run across the lion's nose? Tick one.

- She didn't see the lion.
- She wanted to surprise the lion.
- She thought it would be fun.

2. Why did the lion think the mouse was funny? Tick one.

- because she was dressed as a clown
- because she told him a joke
- because he thought a mouse could never help a lion

3. Why did the mouse run quickly to the net? Tick one.

- because she was in a hurry
- because she heard the lion's voice
- because she was nosy

4. Complete the sentences. One has already been done for you.

5. What is the moral of the story?

Saw My Teacher on a Saturday

Saw my teacher on a Saturday!
I can't believe it's true!
I saw her buying groceries,
like normal people do!

She reached for bread and turned around,
and then she caught my eye.
She gave a smile and said, "Hello."
I thought that I would die!

"Oh, hi . . . hello, Miss Appleton,"
I mumbled like a fool.
I guess I thought that teacher types spend all their time at school.

To make the situation worse,
my mom was at my side.
So many rows of jars and cans.
So little room to hide.

*Oh, please, I thought, don't tell my mom
what I did yesterday!*
I closed my eyes and held my breath
and hoped she'd go away.

Some people think it's fine to let our teachers walk about.
But when it comes to Saturdays,
they shouldn't let them out!
